

The Teacher's Pledge

I PLEDGE to keep my own spiritual life so that it will be an example to my class in Christian testimony, conversation, and prayer.

I PLEDGE to endeavor to lead all of my students who are unsaved to accept Christ as their personal Savior.

I PLEDGE to make the spiritual life of my students my chief concern, in order to lead them into a fuller life of spiritual growth.

I PLEDGE that I will carefully prepare my lesson and make each session a matter of prayerful concern, presenting the doctrines of my church with conviction and honesty; at the same time I will be considerate of the convictions of others.

I PLEDGE to attend all services possible that are conducted at my church; morning worship, midweek service, youth service, and revival services; and I will encourage my students to do likewise.

I PLEDGE to endeavor to lead all my students to a high standard of regular attendance, punctuality, bringing the Bible, preparation of the lesson, and giving in offering.

I PLEDGE to live up to my responsibility in being prompt to see that all absentees are contacted before the following Sunday.

I PLEDGE to participate in all programs of the Sunday School to reach new students for the school, to be cordial in welcoming new students and visitors into my class, and to see that all visitors are recognized.

I PLEDGE my regular attendance at Teachers' Meetings and Workers' Conferences for the promotion of my Sunday School, and to take advantage of any training course offered for teachers.

I PLEDGE that if at any time I am unable to teach my class, I will notify either my assistant teacher or superintendent as soon as possible.

I PLEDGE to be subject to the authorities of the Sunday School with the understanding that my appointment may be changed at any time.

I PLEDGE, by the help of God, to be faithful in performing my duties to the best of my ability and to be as efficient as possible.
